of the larger 1950 budget, or 627 billion zlotys paid by socialized enterprises under the heading of taxes, payment of balances from the settlement of accounts, and amortization. The increase is based on the growth of capital investments of enterprises. Production increases are accompanied by constant reduction of costs.

BUDGETARY ESTIMATE HIGHER IN 1950 -- Zycie Olsztynskie, No 16, 16 Jan 50

The 1950 budget is higher than for 1949 largely because the expansion of physical culture and athletic activities and the inclusion of new agencies, such as the Central Radiofication Office, Central Publishing Commissions' Bureaus, and Physical Culture Academy. A substantial amount is for the Service for Poland Organization. In 1949, 6192 percent of all the young people in Poland were members of this organization.
